

TEXT OF MEXICAN TREATY MADE KNOWN

OUTLINES WHAT MUST BE DONE BY MEXICO TO GET RECOGNITION

Fundamental Question Confronting the Government is the Safeguarding of American Property—Mexico Must Give U. S. Assurance That She Will Perform Obligations

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The American government has proposed a treaty of amity and comity and commerce with Mexico it was announced today at the state department.

The fundamental question confronting this government, the department's announcement said, is "the safeguarding of American property rights against confiscation."

It was added that an agreement containing definite assurances in writing by Mexico was sought.

With such assurances against confiscation it was said there would no longer be any question of recognition. This statement was agreed upon by President Harding and his cabinet today.

Recognition Subordinate Question
The position taken was that the question of recognition was a subordinate one for the negotiation of a proper treaty and would accomplish the recognition of the government that makes it.

The following statement on the subject was issued:

"The fundamental question which confronts the government of the United States in considering its relations with Mexico is the safeguarding of property rights against confiscation. Mexico is free to adopt any policy which she pleases with respect to her public lands but she is not free to destroy without compensation valid titles which have been obtained by American citizens under Mexican laws. A confiscatory policy strikes not only at the interests of particular individuals but at the foundation of international intercourse.

Must Perform Obligation
"Whenever Mexico is ready to give assurances that she will perform her fundamental obligation in the protection both of persons and of rights of property validly acquired there will be no obstacles to the most advantageous relations between the two peoples.

"This question is vital because the provisions inserted in the Mexican constitution promulgated in 1917. If these provisions are to be put into effect retroactively the properties of American citizens will be confiscated on a great scale. This would constitute an international wrong of the greatest character and this government could not submit to its accomplishment.

It is said that this wrong is not intended and that the constitution of Mexico of 1917 will not be construed to permit or enforced so as to affect confiscation, then it is important that this should be made clear by guarantees in proper form.

Proposes Treaty of Amity
"Accordingly this government has proposed a treaty of amity and commerce with Mexico in which Mexico will agree to safeguard the rights of property which attached before the constitution of 1917 was promulgated, if Mexico does not contemplate a confiscatory policy, the government of the United States can conceive no possible objection to the treaty.

"The proposed treaty also contains the conventional stipulation to commerce and reciprocal rights in both countries. It also provides for the conclusion of a convention for the settlement of claims for losses of life and property. There is also a provision for a just settlement of boundary matters.

"The question of recognition is a subordinate one, but there will be no difficulty as to this for General Obregon is ready to negotiate a proper treaty, it is drawn so as to be negotiated with him and the making of the treaty in proper form will accomplish the recognition of the government that makes it. In short when it appears that there is a government in Mexico willing to bind itself to the discharge of primary international obligations concurrently with that its recognition will take place. This government desires immediate and cordial relations of mutual helpfulness and simply wishes that the basis of international intercourse should be properly maintained.

Sumnerlin Presents Treaty

"Accordingly on the 27th, of May last, Mr. Sumnerlin, American charge d'affaires at Mexico City presented to General Obregon a proposed treaty covering the matters to which references have been made. The matter is now in the course of negotiations and it is to be hoped that when the nature of the precise question is fully appreciated the obstacles which have stood in the way of a satisfactory settlement will disappear."

PUEBLO MAKING RAPID RECOVERY FROM BIG FLOOD

Work of Placing City in Condition is Progressing Rapidly

(By The Associated Press)

PUEBLO, Colo., June 7.—Pueblo made strides today in its recovery from Friday's disastrous flood which took a heavy toll of lives and caused a property loss of from fifteen to twenty million dollars.

Danger of pestilence is passed according to officials of the United States public health service; there is plenty of food; shelter has been provided in a refugee camp and an army of men has been at work clearing the streets of debris, removing dead animals and clearing out the stores and other business places.

Part of the city is again electrically lighted. The gas company has preparations nearly complete for supplying heat and lights. The city water plant is functioning and starting tomorrow will pump 5,000,000 gallons of water daily.

Today two cases of diphtheria have developed according to reports of the health service. This is attributed to the fact that the floods virtually wiped out the poorer residence district in the bottoms in which sixty-five per cent of all contagious and infectious diseases originated prior to the flood.

Additional troops tonight are on the way from Boulder and vicinity. Knowledge that congressional aid is assured has given a new air of confidence.

Many are At Work

The military order compelling all able bodied men to work has brought out an army of laborers. They have been unloading trucks of food, carrying blankets for refugees, transporting coats and equipment to the new camp for refugees and shoveling mud and debris and carting it away all day.

The city has been remarkably free from lawlessness. Only a few arrests have been made for looting. Occasional shots have been fired but the only fatality from this source, occurring last night when E. E. Withers, prominent business man, was killed, was not from the gun of any member of the night patrol according to a careful investigation made by the military authorities.

Partial resumption of railroad service between here and Colorado Springs made possible transportation of food supplies and troops into the city.

No general resumption of railway service, however, will be possible for weeks railroad officials said.

Communication with South Pueblo was interrupted again today when military officials considered that the main street viaduct was unsafe.

The city has a plentiful supply of meat, seventy-five hundred slaughtered steers having been put in good condition. Some loads of beef sent from Colorado Springs was shipped back because of an ice shortage. Announcement was made today that ice could be obtained for the first time since the flood was made by a local ice company.

With the centralization of immediate and permanent relief work, measures of rehabilitation to put Pueblo and its stricken citizens back on a self-supporting basis got under way today.

BILL INTRODUCED TO APPORTION ROAD FUND

(By The Associated Press)

Pueblo, Colo., June 7.—Forty two bodies of flood victims were in the morgues of the city tonight. Five additional bodies were recovered. One of the unidentified bodies was identified and some of the discrepancies in the lists previously announced were traced today.

J. W. Pressy, in charge of identification of flood victims stated tonight that a number of dead reported were not flood victims but died of natural causes.

Ray McCarthy, acting coroner, announced today that no inquests would be held over the bodies of flood victims. "The flood was an act of God; no inquest is needed to determine that," he said.

INTRODUCED THREE COMPANION BILLS

(By The Associated Press)

Springfield, June 7.—Three companion bills to the Thompson "peoples' ownership" five cent traction district bill were introduced in the house today by Chairman Brinkman of the committee on public utilities.

The bills amend existing laws conflicting with provisions of the Thompson bill. One of the bills also gives the proposed traction district authority to grant perpetual franchises. Another provides for a merger of the surface and elevated roads.

Announce Policy of Refunding Debt

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Inauguration of the administration's policy for refunding the major portion of the $7,500,000,000 short-term debt was announced tonight by Secretary Mellon with a combined offering of $500,000,000 of three year 5% per cent treasury notes and one year 5 1/2 per cent treasury certificates, both dated June 15.

The notes which will constitute an entirely new form of government security will not be subject to call for redemption before maturity and will be acceptable in payment of income and profits taxes within six months before maturity. Bearer notes, unregistered, with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000.

The tax exemption features will be similar to those of treasury certificates.

In a letter to banking institutions describing the new note issue Secretary Mellon said that on June 15, about $43,000,000 of treasury certificates would mature and at the same time about $130,000,000 of interest on the first liberty loan and victory liberty loan would become payable. In July, he added there would be maturities of about $132,000,000 and in August of about $156,000,000 to be met.

Against these maturities Mr. Mellon said, the treasury expected to receive during June about $575,000,000 quarterly payment of income, and profit taxes. Consequently, he added, the treasury will need about $500,000,000 for its further requirements.

Discussing the current operations of the government during the first eleven months of the fiscal year, Mr. Mellon reported a net current surplus amounting to $228,000,000 and a reduction in the gross debt of about $350,000,000.

NOMINATIONS FOR SHIPPING BOARD TO GO TO SENATE

A. D. Lasker of Chicago is Selected to Head Board

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—President Harding's long delayed nominations of members of the shipping board are expected to go to the senate within the next 48 hours as a result of a series of conferences today between officials here and A. D. Lasker of Chicago, who has been selected for the board chairmanship.

Mr. Lasker had two conversations with the president today and also he said afterward that a final conclusion was yet to be reached, the general impression in administration circles was that he would accept the appointment. A formal announcement on the subject is expected tomorrow.

The names of all seven members of the board it is believed will be included in this announcement and all of the several nominations will go to the senate together.

The president has found the choice of a board one of the most difficult tasks in the organization of his administration and he is said to feel that submission of the appointments in the immediate future is a prime necessity.

Today Mr. Lasker who served in the advertising department of Republican national headquarters during last year's campaign was urged by a number of party leaders here to take the chairmanship and thus make it possible to close up the troublesome problem.

The nominations, when submitted will go to the commerce committee for recommendation regarding their confirmation.

PACKERS ASK FOR REDUCTION IN ALL EMPLOYEES WAGES

Claim That Plants Are Still Operating at a Loss

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 7.—A further reduction of five cents an hour in the wages of all packing house employees paid on an hourly basis, and proportional cuts in the wages of piece workers were asked today by the Chicago packers in a petition filed with Federal Judge Samuel A. Schuler, federal arbiter.

The reductions, if granted, would effect approximately sixty thousand workers in all parts of the country. The petition asked that a full hearing be held before June 19 and requested that the reductions be made retroactive to that date in case the hearing is not completed. Relief from the penalties imposed on the packers in the form of working hour restrictions also were asked.

With the present 8 hour day in force, it was explained the packers were guaranteeing 40 hours of work per week and paying overtime after eight hours. It was suggested that this be changed to a guarantee of 48 hours work per week and the agreement obliging them to pay overtime after 8 hours in any one day be abolished.

Thus overtime would only be paid after 48 hours in a week which would place overtime on a weekly instead of a daily basis.

The minimum now paid in the packing industry is 45 cents per hour to which it was cut from 53 cents in March following the abrogation by the packers in February of a war time agreement under which Judge Schuler was the mediator between the packers and their employees in all disputes.

At that time the packers after conferences with President Harding and Secretary of Labor Davis, agreed to continue the arbitration agreement until Sept. 1 and the employees agreed to accept wage reductions averaging about 15 per cent.

Operating at Loss

In the petition the packers declare that despite the last wage cut and reduction of their forces they have continued to operate at a loss and that they cannot exist under present conditions. They declared that while labor continued to receive from two to two and one half times as much pay as it did before the war, farmers and livestock growers are getting less for their product and are being forced to operate on a basis ruinous to the producer.

"At the present time," the petition said, "we are only in the first stage of business depression. This is evidenced by the fact that although wholesale commodity prices have materially declined interest rates and wages are still high. The history of the business cycles shows clearly that both wages and interest rates must fall substantially from the peak level of prosperity before business can get out of the trough of industrial depression."

"Whether business is forced to go thru financial crisis or not, the process of readjustment from high prices must come. It comes in an orderly way so much the better for business, but in that case the period of readjustment is of longer duration than it would have been had it been preceded by a financial collapse. It is impossible to have a financial crisis without a period of depression following but it is possible to have depression without a financial collapse preceding."

"Compared to other days," it was asserted, "labor is entitled to a larger share of what it produces. It is also clear that if that portion is increased or allowed to remain at a point that business is stagnant and the industry involved is carried on at a loss the wage earner will suffer a loss as acute as that borne by the producer and investor."

"The farmer and the producer have taken severe losses; the earnings of the investor are wiped out; relatively the wage earner has not taken his share of the burden of readjustment. When it clearly appears that everyone else in industry has taken his maximum loss and that further decline in cost of manufacturing is essential to business revival, it is futile for labor to say they wish for a revival and then refuse to contribute labor's portion to that end."

CIVIL SERVICE IS BRANDED AS FAILURE BY GOVERNOR SMALL

Plans for a Clean Sweep of Civil Service in the Departments of Agriculture and Public Works and Buildings—Tells of the Secret Aims of the Cement Trust

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 7.—Following introduction of a bill by Senator Wheeler of Springfield making a clean sweep of civil service in the departments of agriculture and public works and buildings Governor Small in a statement today branded the civil service system as a failure.

The governor said:

"I pledged the people that I would do my best to secure for them a dollar's worth of service for every dollar spent.

"To accomplish this purpose, state employees must be loyal to the people, efficient and competent. This administration proposes to employ only those who so qualify. No employee who gives honest, conscientious service need fear losing his or her position. Incompetents, however, must be weeded out.

"Experience has shown that the civil service law has not in all cases aided in attaining that end.

Witness Says Fred Decker Discussed Life Insurance

(By The Associated Press)

WARSAW, Ind., June 7.—While he stood in the next room selecting a casket and urging a hasty funeral but a few hours after the body he had identified as that of his brother, Virgil Decker, had been prepared for burial, Fred Decker discussed the subject of life insurance, according to witnesses who testified today in the trial of Virgil Decker, charged with the murder of LeRoy Lovett, his chum and said to be his "double."

Homer Dilly, an undertaker of Bourbon, Ind., was the principal witness of the state which is contending that the murder was plotted in an effort to defraud life insurance companies out of $24,000 by killing Lovett and claiming the body as that of Virgil Decker.

"If I felt sure of that insurance, I'd buy a better coffin," Dilly testified. Fred Decker told him as he stood in the little undertaking room in Bourbon. The witness testified that the brother displayed no apparent emotion and had asked that the body be left there in Bourbon until the funeral. He did not want it in his home, the witness said.

"Fred Decker never went very near the body," continued Dilly.

Calvin Decker, when asked about the identification of the body according to the undertaker Dilly, Decker declared:

"Don't you think I know my own brother," he cried. "Why, I know him by the tattoo mark on his arm."

Dilly testified that Mrs. Lydia Decker, mother of Decker, identified the body by tattoo marks.

Many members refused to answer roll call on the bill.

national and state authority. Certainly conditions there are appalling and the great humanitarian organization has a real opportunity for use of its offices. The wish is for chapters throughout the country to assist and notice has been given by the chairman of the Morgan county chapter that subscriptions are earnestly desired and will be promptly forwarded for this relief work. The need is great.

A claim has been filed against the city of Decatur for damages done to auto tires when the owner drove into a depression in the street. If this case is decided in favor of the complainant it will have reason for keeping their pavements in good condition. There is no doubt but that very rough pavements do damage to automobiles and if it is established in the courts that the city streets must be kept free from depressions and "chuck holes" then the only course left to avoid payment of damages will be in better attention to pavement conditions.

WOULD MAKE TRAVEL SAFER

The suggestion has been made that in future construction of hard roads in this state, that a black line six inches in width be drawn along the center for the guidance of automobiles.

This suggestion is well worth while and should be taken into account in specifications for the road building work if the provision will not add in a large way to construction cost. A line so drawn would enable the car driver to judge with correctness as to the part of the road that he can properly occupy, and would thus tend to lessen accidents. Such a line would also in some instances be of use in fixing responsibility for accidents.

But without doubt the proposed marking would automatically tend to better regulation of traffic, and so make for the safety of the traveling public.

THE BIGGEST WORD

A commencement time visitor said recently that just about the most important word in the English language is "usefulness." It doesn't matter much how well they talk, if they are only really useful and perform service which makes them worth while to their families and friends or to the public.

The thought is not especially new, but certain it is that people today are coming more and more into the thought of service and what it means. Just as rapidly as that ideal is realized, just so rapidly will there be better conditions for communities, cities, states and nations.

THE LAST HOUR RUSH

Less than two weeks remain of the present general assembly session. The time has therefore passed for the introduction of new bills and many of those which have been introduced must secure but scant consideration. That is all many of the proposed measures are entitled to, but there are others of large importance which demand the best thought of the legislature and the senate.

The best thing to hope for from the present general assembly is that it will not follow the example of some previous assemblies and rush thru at the last hour important measures that have not fully been considered.

A CONTRADICTIONARY VOTE

The people of Morgan county voted decisively Monday in opposition to the proposal for a memorial building and against the issuance of bonds for such a building. At any rate the situation is not as contradictory here as in McLean county. There last November the proposal for the erection of a memorial building was carried by an overwhelming majority. Monday when the question of issuing bonds for the erection of the building was submitted it was defeated by a four to one vote.

Evidently the sentiment has changed in McLean county or else the proposition was not thoroughly understood by the voters.

VARIED IDEAS ABOUT THE CITY'S NEEDS

Conference of Chamber of Commerce Men Held Last Night. Program of Work Cards Resulted in Interesting Discussion.

As a part of the organization program of the Chamber of Commerce about fifty members had supper at the Pacific hotel last night and then held a conference. The men were divided into two groups, E. E. Crabtree serving as the leader of one group and R. Y. Rowe as leader of the other. Cards were distributed and each man was asked to answer two questions: First, "What do you expect the organization to do for the promotion of your own line of business activity?" Second, "What in your opinion as a citizen, are the things of first importance to be done for the community as a whole?"

Mr. Henley, installation secretary of the American City Bureau, explained that this plan of investigation is followed out for the purpose of finding out individual wishes of members and also their thought for the best interests of the city. In talking about their own business many of those present expressed the thought that they needed no benefit to their own business except that which would naturally result from the increasing size or better conditions of the city. However, various ones of those who answered questions emphasized the private benefit to be secured from better road conditions and from improvement in railroad service.

Several thought one of the greatest individual benefits would be in doing away with useless advertising and its attendant expense. In considering the questions of most importance to the community, the suggestions were numerous but a summary of the answers indicated that a majority feel that the greatest present need is a new hotel.

Here are some of the other answers: Community rest houses. A fuller spirit of co-operation. Industries to give employment to all who seek it. Extension of water mains. Children's playgrounds. Better housing facilities. Transportation of coal to the state institutions by rail. A new Y. M. C. A. building. A reduction of taxes. The annexation of South Jacksonville.

More amusements. Greater support for schools and colleges. Enlarged park system. Public drinking fountains. Boosting propaganda. A full time health officer. Supervised play.

A similar conference will be held at 8:30 o'clock this evening and another one at 6:30 Thursday. Members of the Chamber of Commerce are earnestly requested to attend one of these conferences.

EXAMINING JURORS FOR MURDER CASE

Circuit Court Convened Tuesday Afternoon With Judge Jones Presiding—O'Connell Case to be Heard.

The O'Connell-Lent murder case was called in the circuit court yesterday afternoon with Judge Norman L. Jones presiding. A considerable portion of the afternoon was taken in hearing applications of veniremen for release. There were forty on the regular panel and seventy-five in the special, and many of them presented excuses why they should be released. However, Judge Jones early made it clear that unless there was some unusual reason that he could not excuse the prospective jurors.

About 3:30 o'clock the examination of veniremen began and when court adjourned no juror had been chosen. The questioning on behalf of the state was by State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson and Judge Dietrich of Beardstown put the questions on behalf of the defense. The case will be prosecuted by State's Attorney Briggs of Brown county. State's Attorney Robinson of Morgan and John E. Wall of Quincy. The defendant is represented by Judge W. H. Dietrich of Beardstown and Messrs. Hartzell and Cavanaugh of Carthage.

There were many people who believed that when the jury disagreed at the May term here last year that the case would not be prosecuted further, but it is evidently the intention of the Brown county authorities to prosecute the case until a finding is made.

O'Connell has been a resident of Morgan county for more than a year past, but at the time of the alleged crime was living in Brown county. As a result of an altercation over the alleged theft of a piece of lead pipe O'Connell shot and killed Lent. His plea in the former trial was self-defense.

MATRIMONIAL

Meyers-Grubel.

Miss Mabel Grubel of Sheldon, Ill., and Mr. Frederick Meyers of Chicago, who are teachers in the School for the Blind in this city, were married at the home of the bride Monday afternoon, June 6. Sheldon is a beautiful little town in Iriquois county, near the Indiana line about sixty miles south of Chicago. The pleasant environment of the place and the perfect June day, the cordiality of the hosts, and the felicity of the event all truly delighted the fifty assembled guests. Of the Jacksonville friends who found it possible to be present were Supt. and Mrs. Woolston of the School for the Blind, Mr. Kritch and Mr. Munger of the Conservatory of Music, Miss Alice Mathis, Miss Lorine Dewees, and Mr. L. W. Rodenberg.

The ring ceremony was used and was conducted by Rev. Dykeman of the local Presbyterian church. The bride appeared in veil and all white attire, with a bridal bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Before the ceremony, Mr. Munger played the Friml Waltz, and Mr. Kritch rendered a Romance for violin, composed by Mr. Meyers in 1919 and dedicated to his fiancée. Messrs. Kritch and Munger also brought forth the strains of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn. After the ceremony a luncheon was served on the lawn, and later the guests were granted sight of the many gifts which had been received.

The affair would have been incomplete had not the auto which drove Mr. and Mrs. Meyers from the home to the train for Chicago, come up the street with a jolly clatter of old cans attached. Also, the train being some minutes late, the fifty present on the platform, kept up a constant torment with old shoes, cans, and much rice. The newly-weds, and Miss Dewees, will shortly begin their summer's work in chautauque in the northwest.

OLD JACKSONVILLE
CAROLINE OWSLEY BROWN—1845-1919
(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

About 1851, Henry Owsley came here from Kentucky, with his own family, and with his son, John E. Owsley. The elder Mr. Owsley built the house known now as 856 W. State street, and his son built the one just east of it, now known as 846 W. State. The two houses were almost perfectly alike.

John E. Owsley had a daughter, Mary Caroline, a little girl when he came here. He sold his house and moved to Springfield, about 1855, going from there to Chicago as his final home. There, in real estate he became wealthy and prominent. The Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society, for October, 1919, has just been issued and it contained the following sketch of Mary Caroline Owsley, who had been twice married; last to Mr. Chris C. Brown, of Springfield. All our Presbyterian ladies who attended their Presbyterian Societies knew and honored Mrs. Brown.

The sketch of the little Jacksonville girl, and Springfield lady follows:

Mrs. Mary Caroline Owsley Brown, for more than half a century a leader in social and religious circles of Springfield, died at 8:45 o'clock Sunday, October 12th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank P. Ide, 1515 North Third street. Her death was due to a complication of diseases. She was 74 years old. Although Mrs. Brown had been in failing health for over a year, it was not until two months ago, that her condition became such as to cause alarm to her relatives. Since Saturday she had been unconscious. She passed away peacefully without having regained consciousness.

Caroline Owsley Brown was born December 29, 1845, in Jamestown, Kentucky. When she was a child about six years old, she moved to Jacksonville, Ill., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Owsley. Mrs. Owsley died while her only child was still quite young. After residing in Jacksonville for a number of years, Mr. Owsley brought his daughter to Springfield, where they resided for many years, and where Mrs. Brown received much of her education, she attended Mrs. P. Adley's School, and was a student at the Springfield High School.

The High School at that time was located on South Fifth street, where T. C. Smith's Sons Undertaking rooms now are located. About the time Mr. Owsley's daughter finished her course at the High School, he took her with him to Virden, and later to Chicago. There she met and married Dr. Farnsworth of that city. Dr. Farnsworth lived only two years after his marriage to Miss Owsley.

While residing in Chicago, Mrs. Farnsworth was married to C. C. Brown of Springfield, June 10, 1872. She had known Mr. Brown for many years, and she and her father were old time friends of the Brown family. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Brown came to Springfield to reside. They lived here during their entire married life.

Mr. Brown died in 1904, leaving four children, Mr. Stuart Brown of this city, Edwards Brown of Witten, S. D., Mrs. Frank P. Ide and Owsley Brown. For forty years, Springfield knew a Southern lady from Kentucky as Mrs. C. C. Brown. This same Mrs. C. C. Brown won friends not only in this city but throughout the State, and in many States, who remember her as a "Lady" in the finest sense of the word. She was a beautiful woman; she was said to resemble Queen Elizabeth in her stateliness. But she was more than beautiful to the eye. Hers was a beautiful character—kind, thoughtful, charitable and affectionate. Mrs. Brown's great capabilities, and her splendid mind made her the very woman for every occasion.

C. N. PRIEST BUYS SPRINGFIELD GARAGE

C. N. Priest of Jacksonville has purchased the Acme garage in Springfield and has leased the building for a period of years. Mr. Priest, who is sales director for the Franklin automobile in fifteen counties, will operate garages in a number of cities. Springfield will be the distributing point for cars.

The Acme garage is favorably located on South Sixth street. The Priest agency in Jacksonville is in the Cassell building on the west side of the square.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Moore, now living at 213 West Walnut street, are making preparations for removal to California. They expect to locate near their two sons, who live in the vicinity of San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Roberts and son have returned from a motor trip to Decatur.

She was among the most prominent women in Springfield society, and in club activities. During the busy years of the war just past, Mrs. Brown accepted the great responsibility of holding the office of Vice-President of the Sanagmon Chapter of the American Red Cross, and she worked constantly and faithfully in that capacity.

She was also the head of many phases of woman's work in Springfield. For many years Mrs. Brown was president of the Illinois branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, and she held that office until about three years ago when she resigned. She was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Missions of the Northwest. She took an active part in the activities of the local Missionary societies of the Presbyterian Church, and she was a staunch member and faithful worker in the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield.

No one who saw her in the Red Cross uniform at the head of the Red Cross workers on the day of the Armistice, November 11, 1918, can forget her noble presence and dignified bearing.

A number of bearing times Mrs. Brown accepted the presidency of the Springfield Woman's Club, and she was a member of the Board of Directors of that organization almost from the organization of the club. She was a charter member of the Every Wednesday Club, and was also actively affiliated with the Grateful Circle of King's Daughters and the Springfield Art Association.

Mrs. Brown was one of the earliest members of the Illinois State Historical Society and she took great pride in the State of Illinois, especially in the fact that its pioneer families were of Virginia and Kentucky origin.

She was greatly interested in the work of the Historical Society and assisted in every branch of its work. For several years, she was a small committee of other ladies, particularly Mrs. James A. Rose and Mrs. H. B. Ferguson, took entire charge of the evening receptions given at the annual meetings of the Historical Society.

Mrs. Brown loaned to the Society on these occasions her rare and quaint silver and beautiful table decorations. She invited attractive young women to assist in serving light refreshments to the Society and its guests, and all this with her own generosity and gracious presence made these receptions memorable annual events in the Historical Society, and social life of Springfield and Central Illinois.

Besides living a very active life in the social and religious world, Mrs. Brown was a literary woman of talent. Her humor and her mastery of the English language made her writings most delightful. She wrote a number of things which are familiar to her friends and to others who did not know her personally, but some of them were published in periodicals. Among those which were put into print were "My Girlhood in Kentucky," "A Little Girl's Recollection of Lincoln," and "Springfield's Society Fifty Years Ago." The last mentioned was especially interesting to local people.

Mrs. Brown is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Frank P. Ide of Springfield, and a son, Lieut. Col. Owsley Brown, who returned to Springfield about six months ago from War service overseas, a half sister, Mrs. Richard Garnett of California, and eight half-brothers, Harry B. Owsley of Princeton, N. J., Heaton Owsley of Chicago, John Guy Owsley of Pasadena, Cal., Dr. Frederick Owsley of the State of Virginia, Louis Owsley of New York City, Dr. Paul Owsley of Asheville, N. C., and George Owsley of Winnetka, and two stepsons, Stuart Brown of Springfield, and Edwards Brown of Witten, S. D.

John Packham assistant superintendent of the Cloverleaf Life and Casualty company at St. Louis was in the city Tuesday on business at the home office.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and F. M. Tatem are here from Connorsville, Ind., for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. Scott is manager and half owner with Edward A. Brennan of this city in the McFarlan hotel in Connorsville, the leading hotel of the city and reports that he is meeting with splendid success in his location.

Mr. Tatem is cashier of the Fayette Bank and Trust company and is one of the leading citizens of Connorsville. He is associated with Mr. Scott in a number of organizations of the upbuilding of the city. They drove thru from Connorsville in Mr. Tatem's car.

Mr. Scott is enthusiastic over the city in which he is now residing. He says that business generally is picking up and that the factories of which there are many there are gradually putting on more men and probably will soon be running at full capacity.

Connorsville has an active modern and up-to-date Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Scott is one of them most enthusiastic members.

In conversation with a Journal reporter Tuesday evening Mr. Scott said he was glad to see Jacksonville organizing a modern Chamber of Commerce. He believes it functions properly and is active that it will do much good for the city.

He is also a member of the Kiwanis club which works in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary club.

Mr. Scott says the various commercial and professional organizations work in harmony and meet for discussion of civic affairs so there is no overlapping of their activities.

While enthusiastic over his new home Mr. Scott still has a warm place in his heart for Jacksonville where he spent so many years. He is being warmly greeted by his countless friends. The party expects to return home Thursday.

THE HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA

The high school cafeteria presents a difficult problem to the board of education. In the first place the question of school hours arises. Would the noon intermission be half an hour, an hour or an hour and a half? If half an hour it would have to be in relays so that all might be served.

Then comes the question of the cafeteria itself. The ideal plan would be to employ a high class dietician and serve lunches at cost but the board has absolutely no money for such a salary. The cafeteria must be given over to some one to manage for what there was in it but that is open to objections. It would also require considerable more material before it could be started.

Then comes the question of patronage. How many parents would be able to supply their children with the necessary 20, 25 or 30 cents for a noon lunch? Probably the lunches wouldn't cost more than 20 cents each but that would mean a dollar a week which would be a burden for a good many.

Then comes the question of serving any others than pupils. The board will not for a moment contemplate coming into competition with business men but on the other hand if a parent or member of the family of a pupil wanted to visit with that pupil during lunch hour it was deemed fair to let them have something to eat at the school price. It is the desire of the board to do what is wisest and best for the schools and it was the hope expressed Monday night that some way would be found to solve the question in a satisfactory manner.

DEMONSTRATION RECITAL TUESDAY

Pupils of Miss Inez Pires Gave Interesting Program Before Large Audience

Yesterday afternoon in Academy Hall, a recital demonstrating the Dunning System of Piano Study was given by the first and second year classes of Miss Inez Pires. The program, which was of unusual interest, gave illustrations of ear training (dictation), keyboard transposition, scale study, all sorts of trials in all keys, cadences (any key), rhythm pictures, etc. The students were all very young, some being, indeed, not yet out of the kindergarten age, and showed a remarkable readiness and aptitude.

It is evident, from the performances of the afternoon, that study of piano has ceased to be a matter of pure drudgery, and has become, on the contrary, a succession of interesting experiments carried out in such a manner as to make one forget the labor connected therewith. Mrs. Dunning understood the child nature when she concocted this method, and succeeded remarkably in eliminating the non-essentials and stressing the important parts.

The pupils are prepared, in an astonishingly short time, to enter into and appreciate the broader field of musical interpretation, having laid the foundation for, and developed a genuine interest in the best things that musical art offers. Miss Pires seems to be extraordinarily well adapted to the work she has undertaken, and is to be congratulated on her success with the members of her first and second year classes.

Following is the program in full:

Waltz (trio) — Streabog — Olive Bray, Betty Grassly, Pauline Bray.

Ear training (dictation) — Olive Bray.

Written transposition of same, — Frances O'Donnell.

Ring Around the Rosy — Rogers — Jane Green.

The Cricket and the Bumblebee — Chadwick — Anna Mae Huett.

Chord of the Dominant 7th, any key — Frances O'Donnell.

Wood-birds' Carol — Barth — Wilma Rawlings.

Cadences — any key — Lena Arenz.

Marching song — Cramm — Elsie Patterson.

Rhythm exercise — Marcella Moore.

Oriental Dance — Loth — Hazel Dell Yeck.

Rhythm pictures — Boats — Cornelia Green — Owls — Pauline Bray.

By the Brookside — Rogers. The Butterfly — Wright — Olive Bray.

A splendid picnic supper was enjoyed and later several hours were enjoyed with games of various kinds.

Later the young people attended the tent meeting on South Main street conducted by Brooklyn M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall and Mr. and Mrs. George Syrcle were also in Jacksonville Tuesday evening to attend the tent services.

In some manner Tribble got his right hand in the machine. The entire hand was crushed but the greatest damage was done to the index finger which was nearly stripped of flesh. The middle finger also suffered considerably.

Dr. A. M. King was called and gave the necessary surgical attention and the injured man was

BANKRUPTCY OF GRAIN CO.
CHIEF REQUESTED

Springfield, Ill., June 7.—Proceedings in bankruptcy against E. B. Conover, head of the Conover Grain company, were filed in the federal court here this morning by Springfield Marine bank. This action will force a full investigation of the financial dealings of both the Conover Grain company and the Conover-McHenry Grain company of this city, whose total unsecured debts are estimated in excess of $500,000.

Besides the Springfield bank, two Springfield business houses joined in forcing bankruptcy proceedings. Besides these three, a Peoria bank is known to have lost heavily by the Conover failure. The drop in grain prices last fall is ascribed as the immediate cause of the collapse.

E. B. Conover, who has called upon his brother, George B. Conover, head of the American Grain company, to take charge of the concerns pending settlement, is said to have pledged all his personal assets to a re-organization scheme. This includes a 522 acre farm in Cass county, the $400,000 grain elevator of the company in Peoria, and five country elevators at Dawson, Bradford, Mount Fulcher, Elkhart and Kilbourne, and his home in Springfield.

GROUND IN ILLINOIS

Report is Made by Agricultural Statistician for the Federal Bureau of Crop Estimates—Is in Good Condition in Southern Part of State.

Springfield, Ill., June 7.—(By A. P.)—Corn is above the ground in Southern Illinois, according to the weekly crop notes issued here by S. D. Fessenden, agricultural statistician for the Federal Bureau of Crop Estimates. His review of agricultural conditions of last week follows:

Farm work has progressed rather slowly during the week. Plowing for corn is finished in the south but is still in progress in the northern and central sections. The plant is above the ground in southern counties and the stand is good but growth has been slow so far. Warmer weather is needed.

The condition of winter wheat though still high has fallen some what during the week. It has turned yellow in spots in central and southern areas and chinch bugs are reported at work in the fields in a few localities. The plant has commenced to joint in central areas.

The condition of spring wheat and barley is good to excellent but the growth of barley has been slow of late.

Oats have a thin stand as a rule and the color is bad just now in the southern half of the state. They need warmer weather.

Rye is doing well and its condition is still high.

Early potatoes are being planted in central and southern counties though only a small acreage has been planted so far.

Timothy has a good stand though it is growing slowly at present. New clover is spotted but where left in the fields after the recent freezes it is making good growth. Some reseeded alfalfa has been done. Alfalfa is growing slowly and has many bare spots in the fields. Old clover is suffering from leaf weevil in some central and southern counties. Pastures are in fair shape only at the present time.

Apples generally have set and from the present appearances, late apples will make from one-third to one-half of a crop. Fruit men generally seem to fear an unusually large June drop. The prospects for other tree fruits are poor. While the strawberries in southern Illinois were hurt considerably by the recent freezes those left are yielding well and are now coming on the market.

CENTRAL FIGURES IN KANSAS CITY TRAGEDY

INDIANS CUTTING
UP BALLOON CANVAS

Use Canvas of Balltton That Carried Aviators Into North to Cover Canoes.

Cochrane, Ont.—Some wonderful canoes appeared mysteriously recently in the James Bay region. They were constructed not of birchbark, but of a strange material the north had never seen. As light and swift as swallows on the wing, they skimmed the water. Moose Factory Indians marveled. Had the Great Spirit come from the Happy Hunting Grounds to teach his red children new medicine?

The big balloon that carried three of Uncle Sam's naval aviators into the wilderness several months ago has since lain collapsed on the spot where it descended. Officials of Moose Factory, one of the earliest posts established on American shores by the Hudson's Bay company.

Officials had given orders to all the Indians who own allegiance to the ancient fur company, to leave the great gas bay undisturbed. These orders had been strictly observed.

But a band of outlaw Indians, whose home village is sixty miles northeast of Moose Factory, found the balloon. Old Hudson Bay company's order meant nothing to them. As for Uncle Sam, they had never heard of him. But they knew good material when they saw it and straightway with their hunting knives they sliced great blanket pieces from the sides of the fallen monster and from the magic fabric fashioned canoes that rode the waves like a thistle-down. The air had given the Northland their most marvelous craft.

The Indians who wrecked Uncle Sam's gas bag are known as plutocrats of the wilderness. While on a recent visit, the chief of the outlaws was asked if he were not afraid of getting into trouble for cutting up a balloon belonging to the Great Republic across the border. With a shrug, he drew from his pocket a roll of money that would have made a rent hog jealous. He was ready to deal with Uncle Sam as one man with another.

"How much cost for big bag?" he asked, indifferently. "Me buy the tam thing and pay spot cash." The tam thing now and pay spot cash."

BANQUETERS ARE POISONED AT MADISON

MADISON, Wis., June 7.—A total of 200 people were taken ill following a banquet at the Holy Redeemer Catholic church Sunday night. It was learned on Tuesday. Rev. Joseph Flad, in whose honor the banquet was given, also became ill and the services of a physician were required. An investigation tends to show that the cause was tomato poisoning, only four of the guests escaping the illness.

Most of the victims were reported recovered by Tuesday, but it was said that there are still several who are seriously ill.

GLACIER
NATIONAL PARK

The notion of getting out into the Rocky Mountains appeals to you, of course. Glacier Park contains 1,500 square miles of the wonderful Montana Rockies—peaks of magnificent architecture and of many colors too. And they're mountains of romance as well—the Blackfeet Indians having attended to that through the names they have given them and the legends they have woven about them.

You'd enjoy exploring a glacier—coasting and snow-balling on an icefield in midsummer is great fun.

You like to be out in the woods, too. Here are splendid forests of sweet-smelling pine.

You like to be about the water? Here are countless mountain streams all a-sparkle, and a-brim with Dolly Varden trout; also two-hundred-and-fifty mountain-hemmed, mirror-like lakes—and waterfalls that range from rapids to cataracts.

Fresh air! The mountain breezes are glorious.

Travel in Glacier—that's no end of fun. There are auto-stage and launch routes, miles and miles of skyland pony trails and hiking paths.

And when your day of motor-ing or cruising or pony-backing or tramping is done, you'll find accommodations that rhyme with this Rockymountainland—mammoth mountain inns and "comfy" chalets or, you can "take your hotel with you and camp."

Glacier is the most talked-of place in America by out-of-doors people. When will you be ready to go? Let me know, so I can make your reservations and you'll be sure of space.

COMMENCEMENT DAY AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

DEGREES GRANTED TO LARGE
CLASS OF YOUNG WOMEN

Dr. Tittle of Evanston Made Address on "The Unfinished Task; World Peace." — Pres. Harker's Report Gave Satisfactory Facts.

A large audience assembled for the commencement exercises of Illinois Woman's college at Music Hall Tuesday morning. The address was delivered by Dr. E. S. Tittle, pastor of the First Methodist church of Evanston. Dr. Tittle, who spent some time overseas in the war service, took as his theme, "The Unfinished Task of Universal Peace." At the conclusion of the address the certificates and diplomas were presented and degrees conferred by President Harker. The order of exercises for the morning was as follows:

Organ, Solemn Prelude, by Edward Shippen Barnes—Professor Henry Ward Pearson.
Academic Procession—War March of the Priests from "Athalie," by Mendelssohn.
Invocation.
Duet, The Day is Done, by Lohr—Misses Louise and Kathryn Miller.
Commencement Address—Rev. Dr. E. F. Tittle, pastor of First Methodist church, Evanston, Ill.
Class Hymn.
Presentation of Certificates and Diplomas and Conferring of Degrees.
Announcements.
College Song.
Benediction.
Recessional, Festal March, by Calkin—Professor Pearson.

The Cost of War
Dr. Tittle counted the cost of war in casualties and in disease to say nothing of the billions of dollars of expenditures. The cost of disease the direct result of the war, is almost incalculable as these facts will continue thru years to come. While the world knew that war means human misery, the full realization of this truth did not come until the last war with its involvement of many nations and millions of combatants and non-combatants. "Faith and vision," the speaker said, "are necessary if the task of universal peace is to be completed. Early in the centuries came the demand for peace and the cry has grown more insistent as the years have passed and today is louder than ever before."

Dr. Tittle said that he does not share the view of Field Marshal Henry Wilson that the world must now prepare for the next war. "Men have come to know that war impedes civilization. The men who fight wars do not have hate in their hearts. That feeling is conceived by other minds. The vision of the common people in this regard is correct and they know that the great burden of war falls upon them."

"The survival of the fittest is not today the interpretation of life and instead we have the desire for co-operative effort and the giving of aid."

Dr. Tittle said that the whole blame for the world war should not be placed upon the Kaiser, that it must be shared with the militarists, the bankers and merchants of Germany, and a part of this responsibility must be put upon the secret treaties of Europe.

America's Example

The speaker said that it is not to the credit of America that today she has the largest navy in her history—at this time when this nation should be setting an example to other nations of the world in disarmament. "God grant," he said, "that the time may come when the nation heeds the voice of its people and proceeds with this disarmament plan. The day is past for us to talk of the isolation of America, for we belong to the big family of nations and cannot escape our responsibility. The world must reorganize along new lines and we must have our share in that work. The nation must follow the voice of Christ that 'he who loveth his life shall lose it.' The time must come when the nation must not merely seek for coal and oil and other forms of wealth, but must purpose to give something to the world. Love and not hate must be instilled into the hearts of men."

"You will find that the cause of war was not the hate in the hearts of the soldiers who fought the battle, but that in the hearts of non-combatants. It is because of this fact that the terms of the Versailles treaty were so unfair and made demands beyond the lines of equity. Thousands fought and died upon the soil of Europe to put an end to war and if we would complete the unfinished task we must kill the causes of war and build up friendly co-operation between the nations rather than strife and conquest and the contest for material gain."

After diplomas had been presented Dr. Harker made a number of announcements relating to the year's close and to the future. Referring to the meeting of the trustees, the president referred to the fact that Mrs. Eloise C. Pinner had been elected an honorary member of the board and that T. A. Chapin has also been elected to membership. Figures to show the growth of the college were given as follows: 192 students in 1919, 218 students in 1920, 254 students in 1921.

The president said that the outlook for students next year is better than ever before at this time of year. Dr. Harker found special pleasure in referring to the recognition given the college as the institution is now included in the list of schools by the Association of American Universities. The college is one of a group of seven Illinois universities and colleges included in this list. The institution is also recognized by the Association of Collegiate Alumnae.

Significant Figures

Generous applause was given when President Harker announced that the commencement goal of $250,000 endowment had been reached with an additional $11,000 toward another $250,000 which must be secured during the next two years. It was gratifying to note that this showing had been made although there had been no general campaign either in Jacksonville or elsewhere. Such a campaign will be made during the next two year period.

As evidence of what had been accomplished in the past and by way of prophecy for the future, President Harker quoted from a statement he had made as president on June 7, 1916. At that time he expressed the hope that within a five year period the advance would be equal to that of the past. These were the figures given:

"The net assets of the college have been as follows in the different years:
In 1893, total net assets, $75,000.
In 1896, $85,000, a gain of $10,000 in three years.
In 1901, $125,000, a gain of $40,000 in five years.
In 1906, $200,000, a gain of $75,000 in five years.
In 1911, $330,000, a gain of $130,000 in five years.
In 1916, $675,000, a gain of $345,000 in five years.
Assets increased from $75,000 in 1893 to $675,000 in 1916, a gain of $600,000 in the 23 years. And there is no debt of any kind against the institution."

"Altogether then, in growth in numbers, and in grade of students and of faculty, in the advance in college rank, and in the remarkable increase in buildings, grounds, equipment and endowment, the record is one to inspire gratitude for the past, pleasure and satisfaction for the present, and inspiration for the future."

Then Pres. Harker went on to show his earnest belief that in another five years from 1916 to 1921 the assets would be increased to $1,000,000. Today the assets total $1,011,000, and so the prophecy has been fulfilled.

Reception to the Graduates
Immediately following the commencement exercises all members of the graduates and of the college were invited to the reception room to meet the members of the graduating class. In the receiving line with the members of the senior class were, Dr. and Mrs. Harker, Miss Austin, Miss Bertha Jones, Dr. E. F. Tittle and Mr. A. C. Metcalf.
The College Luncheon
At 12:30 a delicious catered luncheon was served in the gymnasium. Students, faculty, trustees, friends of the college and friends and relatives of the graduates were guests of the college at this annual luncheon.

Gibson and this production was interpreted by Mr. C. W. Taylor. Then "Lead Kindly Light" was presented by the members of the sophomore class thru interpretive posing. After the address by Mr. McClure the essay and valedictory was given by Miss Emma M. Claus, her theme being "Starved Rock."

Mr. White presented the diploma, speaking in an appropriate way of the excellence of the work done by the members of the class and the meaning of the occasion to them. The class song, "Amplius Altius," written by Mr. G. H. Putnam, the class officer, was then given and the program closed with another selection by the orchestra from the state hospital. Two soloists from the hospital also added to the musical pleasure of the occasion.

Address Interpreted

The address by Mr. McClure was interpreted by Mrs. Cleary. Mr. McClure said that he had come for this occasion because Judge Jenkins had found it necessary to remain in Springfield because of certain duties in connection with the legislature. He said that this is the season of graduation and the bestowing of diplomas throughout the republic and the time when congratulations are properly extended to many young people. He asked why it is that the county, state and nation is willing to spend such large sums of money for educational purposes and then the answer was found in the desire to fit young people for the duties of life, to give them an opportunity for learning habits of industry and thrift.

The speaker said that an important part of the school work of today is in Americanization. Further he said that it is the American home that is making the American nation secure and that whether that home is plain or fine, located in the country or the city, that it is nevertheless the basic thing.

In concluding he complimented the graduates upon the successful work done at the field of opportunity that is now opening for them.

PEORIA SCHOOL BOARD DISMISS UNION TEACHERS

The board of education of Peoria has taken some drastic steps with a number of teachers says the Peoria Star. In providing new contracts for the coming year the board stipulated that no teacher employed by the city should be affiliated with any union. The Men Teachers' Federation with a membership of 22 surrendered their charter along with the grade teachers' union but in doing so passed resolutions condemning the board and referring to it as undemocratic and un-American.

Almost immediately the teachers' committee of the board named a sub-committee to investigate and determine what members of the federation were responsible for the resolution. It appeared that two certain teachers had been particularly active and the cause of a great deal of trouble and one of them was especially defiant in his attitude.

It was finally decided by the board that eleven men were especially active in the matter of the resolutions and when they appeared for duty they were referred to the superintendent who gave them the following notice: "You are hereby notified, pursuant to action of the teacher's committee that on account of unjustified and standstill criticism of the constituted authority and your refusal to comply with its rules, or recognize its authority to make such rules you are forthwith dismissed from our service as a teacher."

Some of those dismissed had been with the schools for some time but their radicalism and continued work as agitators caused the board much trouble and the sending of the offensive resolutions brought the matters to a head.

SOCIETY OBSERVES 70TH ANNIVERSARY

Members of Belles Lettres Society of Woman's College Gather in Commemoration of Event—Only Living Charter Member Responds to Toast

One hundred and twenty-five wearers of the shield assembled last evening at Illinois Woman's College to celebrate the seventieth anniversary of the founding of Belles Lettres Society. Members old and new had come from everywhere to join in the celebration. Belles Lettres Society was founded in 1851 and is the oldest woman's organization in the state of Illinois.

The guests were seated at two long banquet tables. Baskets of Ward roses, the society flower, and clusters of smilax down the center of the tables furnished lovely decorations. Yellow candles and little yellow balloons added a touch to the color scheme of gold. Programs embossed with gold shields served as place cards for each guest.

After the banquet Miss Marian Jane Robinson, president of the society for 1920-21, greeted the guests and introduced as toastmistress Mrs. Catherine DeMotte Gates, lovingly known to Belles Lettres girls as "Mother Gates." Mrs. Gates, with her dignity and graciousness of manner made an ideal toastmistress.

She first introduced LeNore Kreige, the president-elect for next year, who sang in a charming manner, "Bells of Youth," by Speaks.

Charter Members Talk

Mrs. Alice McElroy Griffith, '53, was then introduced, the subject of her toast being, "It was many and many a year ago." Mrs. Griffith is the oldest living charter member of Belles Lettres and she told in a wonderful way the story of the founding of the society. Seventy years ago she and two other girls met and founded the society. From that simple beginning has grown the society, far beyond the greatest hopes and visions of these first three girls. Miss Kathryn Miller then sang most pleasingly, "Butterflies," by Selzer.

Mrs. Branchie Sandrell Purl, '52, of Carrollton, gave a toast to "The Fragrance of the Rose." She told a few bits of society and college history, tracing the growth of Belles Lettres and speaking of the Illinois Woman's College as the rose that sheds its fragrance over all who come within its influence.

A delightful reading given by Alma Harmel of Pekin, Illinois, "Jack, Penelope and Life," was a pretty little modern fairy tale with a hidden moral.

The toastmistress then introduced Mrs. Emily Jane Allen Fay '13, whose subject was "The Gilt of the Gold." She spoke of the gleam of Belles Lettres ideals and of the golden circle of friendship that binds members together.

Influence of Society
Dr. Harker spoke a word of congratulation on "Our Seventieth Anniversary." He said that the note of friendship and love, and the spirit of unity that binds Belles Lettres girls into one, is the greatest thing in the society.

Miss Louise Miller then announced that the former members had presented the society with a Victrola. In her usual charming manner she sang two songs, "Expectancy," by Stickels and "I Bring You Heartsies," by Branscombe.

The program closed with the singing of the Belles Lettres song. Mrs. Gates reminded the girls that the writer of the song, Mrs. Alice Don Carlos Vogel, graduated from the college just 50 years ago this spring.

Marie Bliff of Hoopeson was the general chairman of committees for the reunion. Helen Ost of New York, had charge of the decorating and Miriam Siple of Pekin arranged the program. The assisting committee in Jacksonville consisted of Cora Cherry, chairman, and Genevieve Coates, Helen Poole, Isabel Woodman and Mariam Jane Robinson.

WEALTHY FARMER IN SERIOUS CONDITION

John McKeown of Schuyler County Patient at Passavant Hospital—Was Taken From River at Meredosia Unconscious and Suffering From Knife Wounds.

John M. McKeown a wealthy farmer residing near Camden, Schuyler county is lying in a serious condition at Passavant hospital as a result of knife wounds in the throat and exposure.

McKeown was rescued from the river by the bridge tender at Meredosia early Tuesday morning. The bridge tender heard the moans of injured man and found him floating in the water about 300 yards below the bridge.

He had knife wounds on each side of the neck which exposed the windpipe and also was suffering from exposure. McKeown was unconscious and it was impossible to find out how he came by his injuries. It is the belief, however, that he attempted suicide, but he may have met with foul play.

John McKeown has lived for many years near Camden, 12 miles from Mt. Sterling on his own farm. He is a veteran of the Civil War. He is married and has five children but has been estranged from his wife for several years and has been making his home with his children.

Monday he was in Mt. Sterling asking about renting a house and later in the day made inquiries about the freight rates for household goods from Mt. Sterling to Quincy. He went to the station and bought a ticket to Meredosia and boarded the train which was due to leave Mt. Sterling at 6:50, but which Monday evening was one hour late.

Found by Bridge Tender.

Tuesday morning at 12:30 the bridge tender at Meredosia heard some one moaning and upon investigation found a man who later was identified as McKeown floating in the river about 300 yards below the bridge. He got him out of the river and called Dr. Neville who gave him medical care. He was unconscious and badly slashed on each side of the neck, laying bare one wind pipe, and suffering from an hour or more exposure in the river.

Edward Cody brought the injured man to Passavant hospital in Jacksonville in a truck, arriving about 5:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Dr. Duncan has charge of the case here and when interviewed stated that Mr. McKeown was in a very serious condition due to his wounds, his age, and the fact that he was exposed so long in the water and on the trip from Meredosia to Jacksonville.

Thomas McKeown, of Mt. Sterling, a son of the injured man, came to the city Tuesday morning. At first his father did not recognize him although he had recognized the priest from Mt. Sterling. Mr. McKeown was conscious for spells during the day and talked a little but he could not recollect anything that happened after he was in Mt. Sterling on Monday afternoon. He does not remember buying the ticket to Meredosia and cannot account for anything that happened to him.

LIBRARY FACTS FOR THE YEAR GIVEN

Annual Report of the Librarian Presented to Directors at Meeting Yesterday.

At the meeting of the Library board yesterday Miss Elizabeth Clarke librarian presented her annual report. The following facts were set forth:

Registration.
The number of new borrowers added to the Library has been very close to that of the year before. There have been 541 new cards and 385 renewals in the adult department and 258 new cards and 109 renewals in the juvenile room. With 4 registrations at the Capps Mills Station, we have a total of 1,295.

Seven cards have been withdrawn (5 adults and 2 juvenile), and 1,500 cards out of force from age have been cancelled. This leaves us with 3,825 adult and 1,864 juvenile cards still in force—a total of 5,689.

This does not include the borrowers at the school stations, probably 1,000 more. Nor does it take note of the short time rural borrower of about $0 in number, though the yearly rural cards are included. In fact 7,000 would be nearer the number of persons using the library, which is nearly half of our population.

In this connection, I would suggest that the usual annual fee for membership for persons not paying city taxes be $2.00 instead of $1.00.

We save seven club memberships in our neighboring villages, by which from 10 to 25 persons all have the use of the library for one yearly fee of $1.00. If the personal annual fee was raised to $2.00 and the club fee to $4 or $5.00 depending on its size, our revenue from this source would be more than doubled. This would also seem fairer to the city people who are paying a library tax for the same privileges.

Accessions.

We had in the library May 1, 1920, 25,387 volumes. We have added 1,701 volumes including bound magazines and many gifts from the government and other sources.

We have withdrawn 863 vols. a large amount on account of the epidemic of scarlet fever and diphtheria during the spring. This leaves us with a total number of vols. of 26,225.

Since Jan. 1st, lists of the new books have been printed in the daily papers and also, as bulletins distributed to the public, from whom we have received many expressions of pleasure at the plan. The late books have been exhibited in the open case near the door, with bulletins calling attention to the more valuable of the additions.

It is also the plan of the librarian to occasionally write up some of the more important of the new books for the daily papers.

Circulation.

The total circulation for the year is 67,242. The adult circulation is about 2,000 more than for the year before, and our total would undoubtedly have run over 70,000, but for the falling off in the children's room. This was due partly to the epidemic in the spring and partly to giving up the story hour for lack of a children's librarian since March 1st.

The present circulation is, however, a fine showing for the size of the city, as it represents 4 books for every one of the 15,000 population which is much larger proportion than most places.

The character of the circulation should also be noted as of an unusually high grade.

Our fiction percentage is a little over 50 per cent, while in most places it runs from 60 per cent to 75 per cent. We gave out 3,445 vols. in the literature class and 1,790 in sociology—1,376 in history and 2,230 in fine and useful arts.

Our college borrowers' naturally ally account for much of this record, but Jacksonville residents also show a fine appreciation of the best in books.

Reference.
The amount and scope of reference work done by this library has impressed me, a newcomer, as being quite remarkable.

We serve, not only the general public, but ten study clubs including several rural organizations, many of the teachers and students of both colleges as well as the High school.

Books have been on reserve, during the year for six grades of the Junior and Senior High Schools, for five teachers of the Senior High, one teacher at the Woman's College and three of Illinois.

We have nearly all the time, also, reserves for the debating teams of the High school and Illinois college with sometimes a pleasant rivalry for first choice or material. From four to six the library is full of young people for whom prompt and accurate service is needed. It should not be a surprise that our binding bills are heavy, for our books get much harder wear than those of most city libraries.

During the summer, reference lists for every worker in our numerous study clubs are made. This is no small piece of work, but save much time in the following busy season. Many inter-library loans have been made, on request, from St. Louis and two libraries in Springfield, and many books loaned, in turn, to the small library at Virginia.

Some system will be put in force soon to give to the Board and the public a yearly report of the reference use of books.

Children's Room.

The appearance of this room will be much improved when the new lights ordered are installed. The epidemic in the spring hit the room hard, and for a time the circulation was extremely small. The early warm weather also affected the attendance.

The children's librarian gave story hours during the winter, and a bird day celebration was held a week ago with an exhibition of bird boxes. The talk was given by Mrs. J. F. Langton, and was enjoyed by a very enthusiastic audience.

Miss Irene Bowman resigned as children's librarian and left the 1st of March. Mrs. Nathaniel H. Scribner, a graduate of the Wisconsin library school will take her place July 1st.

It is expected, with the coming of our new librarian to bring the department up to par in the coming year. An important part of the work with children, the talks and instruction in the use of the library, given at the David Prince and grade school was given during the winter and will be continued next year.

The school circulation though also somewhat lowered by the spring epidemic makes a good showing of its usefulness. Mr. Perrin, Supt. of Schools is very much interested in the school library, and a plan for their improvement will be worked out with his co-operation this summer.

The Passavant Hospital station has been unusually successful this year, owing to the generous efforts of Mrs. Hester Capps.

On account of the partial closing of the Capps Mills station for a time, our Capps Mills station has done little this year. We hope to re-open it next fall. The librarian has been asked to give supervision to a small collection of books for the ex-service men at the State Hospital. These books were sent by the Hospital Service of the American Library association from Chicago and are for the use of the Army men only.

Gifts

The gifts this year include the following:

Masters—Spoon River anthology
Hendrick's Commercial Register.

Buyers and Sellers' List of the International Trade Developer.
McCarthy Year at Camp Gordon.

Lansing Peace Negotiations from Andrew Russell.
Girl Scouts Campward Ho.

Zimmerman's Echoes from the Distant Battlefield.

Alvard Illinois Country.
Farnsworth the Euphrates.
Carnegie Endow. Internat. Peace—Yearbook, 1920.

Gen. Butler Private and Official correspondence.
Y. M. C. A. Summary World War Work.

In addition, as a Depository library, we have received many books and pamphlets published by the government of value in reference work.

The Staff

Miss Barrette's resignation which took effect October 1st, left the place of librarian vacant until Jan. 1st, when it was filled by the present head. Miss Bowman's place will be filled the 1st of July as previously noted. No other pay appointments have been made. Miss Weber's place made vacant May 1st being carried by substitute help. More permanent arrangements will be made in the fall.

With grateful acknowledgment of the valuable services of the library trustees, this report is respectfully submitted.

AMERICAN LEGION IN REGULAR SESSION
Members of Local Post Met Tuesday Evening at Court House—Passed Resolution on Defeat of Proposition at Monday's Election.
A regular business meeting of Post No. 279, American Legion, was held at the court house Tuesday evening. There were about twenty members present and various matters of business were given attention.
The post went on record as deeply appreciative of the excellent work done by the committee in charge of the sale of poppies for Decoration Day. The proceeds from the sale of these flowers amounted to more than enough to pay all the expense in connection with the Decoration Day program. The Legionnaires are also thankful to the people who bought and wore the flowers and to all who in any way made the Memorial Day plans succeed.
A substantial sum was added to the treasury of the organization as the result of an entertainment given by a group of girls one day the past week.
The committee on headquarters reported that nothing of a definite nature has yet been done, but it is hoped that a suitable meeting place can soon be secured. Plans for the inauguration of an initiation program in connection with the ritual were also discussed at some length.
The regular social meeting of the Legion will be held on Tuesday evening, June 21.
The post adopted the following resolution with reference to the defeat of the proposition for erecting a soldiers' memorial building in Morgan county:
Whereas, The members of Jacksonville Post, No. 279, of the American Legion in meeting assembled, June 7, 1921, regret the action of the voters of Morgan county in defeating the county memorial building proposition in honor of Morgan County's sixty-five illustrious dead, and
Whereas, We affirm again our fidelity to the memories of these men and to the cause of 100 per cent Americanism fostered by the spirit of 1917 and '18, and
Whereas, We appreciate the support of our loyal friends, be it Resolved, That the Legion is still of the conviction that the erection of a memorial building would be a fitting tribute to the honored dead and of benefit to county and community.
Jacksonville Post No. 279, American Legion.

LAST MEETING OF THE H-CLUB
The H-CLUB held its last meeting for the year at the Christian church May 24, 1921. The club had a greater membership and attendance for this year than any previous years. There being 70 members and an average attendance of 40.

Vice President—Madrice Johnson.
Secretary—Harry Furry.

The seniors present, Howard Nichol, Albert Hickox, Roscoe Mawson, Robt. Furry, Paul Gard and Eugene Darr spoke briefly on their viewpoint as a senior and what benefits they had derived from the club.
Mr. Findley closed the meeting by expressing his sentiments to the retiring seniors and his wish for a greater success of the club for next year. He also extended his thanks to the H-CLUB for its support for the building of a new Y. M. C. A. building for Jacksonville which is badly needed.

FORCED TO FIGHT FOR HIS BREATH

Almost Physical Wreck Raff Builds Himself Back to Vigorous Health

"I had heard a great deal about Tanlac and since trying it myself I can conscientiously say it is the best medicine I have ever seen in all my experience," said David Raff.

250 N. 59th St., Philadelphia, recently. Mr. Raff has lived in Philadelphia all his life and is well known and highly respected. "My health was all broken up," he explained. "My stomach was all out of order and gave me so much trouble that I actually dreaded to go to the table. I would simply rather go without eating than suffer the awful misery I knew would follow. I would bloat up so with gas that my heart would beat a terrific rate and it seemed sometimes that I was being smothered to death. I just had to fight for my breath. My nerves were all undone. I slept poorly and was all the time having headaches that were almost blinding. I lost weight and felt so weak and run-down all over I could hardly do any work."

"Sometime ago a friend of mine told me he knew Tanlac would help me and he spoke so positive about it that I took his advice. And I can say right now that Tanlac is the first medicine I ever saw that will do exactly what they say it will. Five bottles have the same as made me all over again. I can eat anything I ever could in my life and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I'm no more nervous than a child, sleep fine and it just makes me feel happy to be enjoying such good health. Tanlac certainly is a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Shreve's Drug Store and leading druggists.—Adv.

HOW CHINESE GET MURDER CONFESSION

Interesting Procedure at Recent Murder Trial in That Far Off Land.

Shanghai—(By A. P.)—How justice is administered in a Chinese criminal court was illustrated in an interesting fashion at the trial of a locally celebrated murder case that was held the last week in March in Nantao, the native settlement which forms a large part of the city of Shanghai.

For three days preceding the trial curious thousands, hedged off by stout bamboo rails, watched the progress of a post mortem at which east and west clashed. The post mortem was performed by Chinese physicians, several trained in American and other occidental schools and others who had received their medical education in China. It was a case of suspected poisoning and while the western-trained physicians insisted that the stomach and intestines with their contents should be sent to a laboratory for analysis, the purely Chinese doctors clung to an ancient belief and declared that the question at issue could be proved by boiling the bones of the deceased in a certain manner. The Chinese doctors carried their point.

Chang Shen Sung, the accused, was arrested in the International settlement. It was charged that thirteen months ago at the little Chinese river village of Pootung, 14 miles down the Whangpoo from Shanghai, he had poisoned his father, Chang Ka-yung, a wealthy rice merchant. On application of the Chinese authorities Nantao the prisoner was turned over to the Chinese police and a trial was held the next day.

The hearing took place in an open lot, with the court sitting beneath a mat shed, while close-packed thousands, held back by soldiers and stout bamboo stockade, looked on avidly thru the hearing. In a prominent place in front of the court a huge iron kettle simmered over an open fire, in which had been placed the bones of the alleged victim as the Chinese doctors had ordered.

The hearing was lengthy and the court took no less than three recesses thru the day. The procedure consisted almost wholly of questioning the accused and urging him to confess that he committed the crime. This questioning was done by the court, police officials and two Chinese procurators in turn and thru the whole bombardment of interrogation the youth in manacles held firmly to a denial of his guilt.

The Chinese doctors had declared that if the deceased had died from poisoning this would be made evident by the presence of discolorations on the bones after the boiling process. Again and again this was borne in upon the prisoner, who was told that if he were guilty the bones when exposed would surely prove it.

It was when the court sat for the fourth time that the lid was removed from the kettle and the grisly contents were placed on a long table. Numerous dark spots were seen on many of the bony parts. One of the procurators, pointing to these marks, turned to the agitated prisoner. "Did you poison your father?" he thundered. The prisoner shrank back. "I did it. I poisoned him," he confessed.

AWAITING PASSAGE OF PETROLEUM BILL

American Oil Companies Watching Progress of Bill Before French Chamber of Deputies.

Paris—American oil companies are awaiting with keen interest the passage of the petroleum bill, now before the chamber of deputies, which opens the French market to all countries on an equal basis, for the first time since the war. Oil has been a government monopoly during that period.

The French government has promised that the measure will be effective June 1 and officials of American oil concerns in Paris confidently expect the passage of the act. The adoption will mark the close of several years of intensive effort on the part of American companies to obtain permission to do business in France.

Several American oil companies have established offices in Paris and are making extensive plans for selling their products in France on the American plan.

The first plan which the American companies will put into effect is a scheme to reduce the price of gasoline to the consumer.

The government through its monopoly has sustained considerable losses and it has on hand at the present time an eight months supply of oil which cost it 2,000,000,000 francs more than the present market price.

It is understood that the American concerns probably will take over this stock and import American oil. The price of the two will be averaged and the French consumer given the benefit of a reduction. The price of gasoline in France today is about 85 cents a gallon.

Statements have been made in the chamber of deputies to the effect that the consumer is paying one-third higher price under government control than under free trade, while the government is losing 15,000,000 francs per month.

MANY BODIES ARRIVE

The Chicago Tribune contains an account of the arrival in New York of the Steamship Cambria carrying 15,525 bodies of American soldiers from France. Among the list was the body of Col. Pierce whose death was recently noted. Mrs. Pierce's sister, Mrs. C. R. Morrison, went to Washington to attend the funeral.

FARMERS DISCUSS COOPERATIVE BUYING

Farm Organization at Meet Last Week Talked About Establishing and Supporting One Purchasing Agency.

Bloomington, Ill.—All of the Illinois farm organizations which were called together here last week by the Illinois Agricultural association to consider co-operative purchasing of farm supplies felt the need of and favored some means of supporting one purchasing agency that would serve all organizations. A committee of five, each man being selected by his organization, was appointed to make a thorough study of the situation, outline a definite plan or choice of plans and report back to the conference.

The trend of the discussion was to the effect that one state purchasing organization could serve all organizations better and cheaper than for each to have its own. There was no question as to the necessity or advisability of forming such an organization but rather a question of just how to form it in such a way as to be satisfactory to all. There was some discussion as to the extent locals should carry supplies throughout the year and maintain repair and service departments. Secretary Thompson stated that there was a certain amount of truth in the dealer's contention that Farm Bureaus purchased co-operatively in prosperous years and do not purchase co-operatively when business looks bad.

It was the attitude of the farm advisors' association, university extension department and Illinois

CUMARD LINE OFFICIAL ACTS AS STEWARD ON ACQUITANIA

Mr. C. E. Cutterell, assistant manager of the Cumard Line, worked as library steward (replacing strikers) on the record trip of the S. S. Acquitania. He lost five books and says hereafter he'll go a bit easier in reprimanding "careless stewards."

Agricultural association that farm bureaus should not enter commercial activities for the reason that their form of organization is not for commercial work; that farm advisors are technically trained rather than commercially and their main work deals with production and marketing problems. However, the need of one central purchasing agency to serve all farmers was favored. The Grange took a similar attitude. E. A. Eckert explained that the Grange is a secret organization formed for educational and social purposes and has indulged in cooperative purchasing because members requested it. The Grange has about 80 locals in Illinois, the strongest counties being Winnebago, Peoria, Boone, St. Clair and Pulaski. Mr. Eckert favored one purchasing company.

The Farmers' Grain Dealers' association has elevators at 625 stations in the grain belt of Illinois. These elevators handled twenty-five million dollars' worth of side lines last year, most of them being purchased from dealers. The Grain Dealers' association has recently organized a supply company to purchase direct from manufacturers for these elevators. Both the Farmers Grain Dealers' association and the Co-operative Supply company were in favor of one buying agency for all organizations and have invited all organizations to use their supply company for that purpose. This question was discussed at length and will be one of the projects which the committee of five will consider.

The Farmers' Union has a membership of about 6,000, practically all of it in the southern part of Illinois. Their 250 locals do a great deal of co-operative buying and the state organization has an exchange at St. Louis. President J. C. Lamborn and Secretary Doyle both favored one buying agency.

The Chicago Milk Producers' association, represented by Secretary J. W. Kittle and the Chicago Milk Marketing company, represented by J. H. Love, has 259 locals, a good share of them in the northern Illinois dairy district. Most of these locals are purchasing feed cooperatively and the marketing company acts as a purchasing agency for them. These men believe it would be to their advantage to work with other organizations in establishing one supply company to serve all organizations.

SCHOOL FOR DEAF BEATS SPRINGFIELD

Visitors are Taken Into Camp by Score of 5 to 4 — Game Well Played and Springfield Threatens in Ninth Inning.

The Illinois School for the Deaf, playing its last ball game, scored a victory over the Springfield high school, by the score of 5 to 4. The game was a close one. It was one of the best played since the defeat by Missouri School for the Deaf. The local team played much better than they did in the Missouri game.

George Carlson, the tall hurler was on the mound for the local team. He was given splendid support, especially from the outfield, where some sensational catches were made. He was a bit wild in the pinches. He struck out nine and walked two.

McGairn, southpaw did the hurdling for the visiting team. He was hit hard by the local batters. He struck out Massinko of the locals, who is the best hitter, every time he came to the plate.

The visitors scored first, but an inning later the locals scored. Each then had one run. In the seventh the locals piled up four runs, the score then standing 5 to 1. In the ninth the visitors made a rally and scored three runs. When the third out was made the score stood 5 to 4 in the locals' favor. The teams probably will clash again next year. The score:

DEMPSEY TAKES GOOD WORKOUT

ATLANTIC CITY, June 7.—Jack Dempsey illustrated the power of his punches and his famous shift in his workout today. The champion gave the punching bag a drubbing in addition to two rounds of shadow boxing and driving blows at the sixty pound felt stuffed bag for a round.

He astonished the spectators with his accuracy and power in hitting. The bag was driven over the heads of the spectators twice. Dempsey worked out for 35 minutes. He intends to resume boxing Saturday if his damaged eye is sufficiently healed. Crowded around the ring in the hangar back of the camp were two hundred spectators half of them women and some with babies in their arms. A greyhaired grandmother, with an old fashioned black poke bonnet perched on her head sat on a box at the edge of the ring, alongside of her two daughters. She was Mrs. Margaret Handel of Philadelphia. She never took her eye off the sunburned Dempsey as he pranced around the ring. Some one wanted to know if she was the champion's mother.

"Bless you no," she said, "I would be proud to have a strapping boy like that. Isn't he wonderful?"

With the arrival of another dog today, Dempsey's kennel was increased to four. The new dog is a prize winning Belgian police dog valued at $500. It was the gift of a millionaire admirer from Long Beach, N. J. The champion already had two Belgian police dogs in camp and a white bull pup.

OLD AGE, HIS MARK!

Oliver Wendell Holmes, in the charming discourses of "The Professor at the Breakfast Table," refers to an unmistakable sign of old age. It is three parallel lines between the brows. We can detect the first traces of disease by signs just as plain.

When a woman suffers from backache, dragging down pains, and those ailments peculiar to women, it is plain that she needs a woman's medicine. What other medicine could she more wisely resort to than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for half a century has proved the natural restorative for these troubles?—Adv.

wonderful season at Mason City this year for maturing seed corn with the result that we have the finest lot of well dried 1920 crop of seed corn that we have ever grown. This corn is gathered early in the fall and placed on drying racks where it is slowly dried down to twelve or fourteen per cent moisture content. This gives corn of very high vitality.
We have been in the seed corn business in a large way for over thirteen years and have the largplant in the world. Our down

Daily Market Report

CLOSING PRICES

WERE UNSETTLED
CHICAGO, June 7.—Bullish crop figures, the most radical yet this season, jerked the wheat market upward today from an early decline. The bulge, however, failed to hold. Closing prices were unsettled varying from 1¢ lower to a like advance with July $1.29 1/2 to $1.30 and September $1.18 1/2 to $1.17. Corn lost
3/4¢ to 1 1/2¢ and oats 3/4¢ to 5/8¢.

Provisions gained 10¢ to 60¢.
According to a leading expert the 1921 winter wheat yield as near as he could estimate after a tour of the chief producing states promises only 558,000,000 bushels whereas the government estimate May 1 was 628,000,000 bushels.

Buying based largely on the new estimate carried the market this afternoon to the highest of the day. Profit taking on town. Following an elegant four-course dinner the "cast" was let out of the bag, carrying an announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Mildred Winn and Mr. Robert J. Brown, the latter of Springfield, which will take place June 14th. Then came a telegram in code which deciphered carried intelligence of the approaching marriage of Mrs. Gladys Wenken and Mr. William Nesbit, which will take place early in June. Mr. Brown has a run out of Springfield as an engineer on the C. & A., while Mr. Nesbit has charge of the hog department of Gregory Farm, coming here from Lafayette, Indiana, a few years ago. The company composing Mrs. Roodhouse's announcement party included Misses Kate Ellis, Jessie Ross, Mildred Winn, Mesdames Laura Ross, Lloyd R. Winn and Gladys Wenken.

Word reaches here that a 9-pound son had arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goacher at Jacksonville. The family resided here until Mr. Goacher acquired a barber business in Jacksonville last fall.

Telegraphic advices to Roy Shenkel convey the information that John Cotasky, a former resident of White Hall, was accidentally killed at Dubuque, Iowa. His age was about sixty years. No details are given.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ray McCourthy has been blessed with a 9 1/4 pound son. The newcomer is a nephew of Justice Floyd E. Thompson, the mother being formerly Miss Mabel Thompson.

Paul Rimbey and Misses Kate Ellis and Mildred Winn attended the district convention of the Christian church at Bardonia this week. At Thursday's session Miss Winn gave a vocal solo with Miss Ellis as accompanist. The next convention goes to Virden.

The C. & A. has provided for the movement of the Ed A. Evans show train of fifteen cars from Alton to White Hall Sunday, June 12th. The aggregation will exhibit on the Woods show lots for a week.

THE TENT REVIVAL

The tent revival meeting on South Main street, under the auspices of Brooklyn M. E. church and in charge of Evangelist Linton, started off with a good swing and a fine attendance Monday evening. The tent was formally dedicated by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Randle, to the worship of God, under the name of the Brooklyn Tabernacle of the Methodist Episcopal church. The evangelist preached on the subject, "Prayer" and scored many telling hits, which were well received and appreciated by the audience. The location is ideal for the purpose and there is plenty of room for the people and the parking of cars. This gospel tent has witnessed some remarkable scenes during the past few weeks and it is the expectation that these scenes will be duplicated here. A large delegation from Concord is expected at the meeting tonight.
